Long time ago
there was a large forest.
It had a big pond.
There was a big tortoise in this pond.
Two beautiful white swans also lived in the pond.

Then came a drought.
The pond dried up.

The swans
said to the tortoise, “Friend, we should find another pond with water.”

“Dear friends, you can fly.
But how can I go far
with these short legs?”
said the tortoise.
