

After the death of King Valagamba, there was no political stability in the country. About thirty-five kings ruled the land from time to time. Among them were the sons of King Valagamba and other princes who were related to the king.

King Yasalakatissa, King Subha, King Vasabha - who was famous for building tanks, the 'Bosath' King Sirisangabo, and King Gothabhaya were some of the significant kings who ruled during this time.

(c) Sumithra Publishers